

FARMING ROAD MAP

WHERE ARE YOU HEADED?

A good road map is vital to helping us get to our desired destination. A set of refined farm parameters can mean the all of the difference when attempting to acquire new business. Let our Farming Road Map that can help guide you to your desired results.

LOCATION

Are you looking for one specific city? Or are you looking for specific parts of a city? We can break down your farming to specific zip codes to help you more specifically target.

PROPERTIES

What types of properties are you looking to prospect? Here are a few popular ones: Single Family Residences, Condos, 2-4 Unit properties.

ACTION

We can provide you with a Walking Farm (Ask Us About This) if you are looking to canvass the area on foot. If you would rather mail we provide mailing labels or a csv file for your crm system.

OWNER TYPE

Are you looking to work with potential sellers? Or maybe buyers are your niche? Ask us how we are able to help you identify homeowners from non-homeowners in a specific area or city.

OF RECORDS

This is important because too many records can easily overwhelm the most seasoned of realtors. Rule of thumb is you want to start with 100-500 records in any given area. Depending on your marketing initiatives this number can be increased.
